JFK Working Notes

Subject: Topics/Issues discussed at Meeting with J. Gunn and ARRB Staff, 1 February 1996

Next Meeting: 29 Feb.-1 Mar

The Board plans to increase the number of documents being reviewed (their goal is several hundred per session). They will be addressing the remaining documents from Oswald boxes 1-3 and 7-9 plus new boxes 4-6. Documents from Boxes 10-12 should be available if needed.

Board Actions

Re liaison, Gunn said that the approach of the Board members was to uphold a postponement if the information:

- a. identities a foreign security/intelligence service
- b. identities a specific person (foreign official)

They are less inclined to protect information when it deals with liaison in general.

Request Priorities

- 1. Access to inventory of CIA History Program
- 2. Indices/inventories to JFK records
- 3. 1967 IG Report
- 4. Meeting with Whitten

New Requests/Issues

- 1. Do we have Barbara Manell's testimony to the HSCA in our collection or in HSCA referrals? Action: Frank
- 2. Can we pull together documents related to Bishop and Oswald (or identify where located in collection)? [This request relates to their request that we certify that all files have been searched for Bishop/Oswald connections.]
Action: Kathey, Frank
- 3. Would Nosenko be willing to meet with the Board?
Action: none - will revisit when we reach the Nosenko material in the collection.
