CONFIDENTIAL*Memorandum*

DAL-83-76

TO : Chief, Domestic Collection Division
ATTN : Chief of Operations

DATE: 14 July 1976

FROM : Chief, Dallas Field Office

SUBJECT: Inquiry from Richard Russell of Dial Press Concerning Dallas Field Office Association with Lee Harvey Oswald and George deMohrenschildt

1. On the evening of 13 July 1976, at about 2100, Mr. Richard Russell of the Dial Press and the Dell Publishing Company, came by my house. He advised that he was working on a book on the Kennedy assassination and that he understood I was a friend of George deMohrenschildt. He wanted to know if I had ever met Lee Harvey Oswald or if deMohrenschildt had ever suggested that I should see Oswald. I told him no on both counts and advised that I have not seen or talked with George deMohrenschildt since the fall of 1961.

2. Mr. Russell attempted to draw me into discussion of the Kennedy assassination which I avoided and wanted to know if I could give him the name of the chief of the CIA office in Mexico City in 1963. I told him I could not, and he said he could probably get the name from Mr. David Phillips. I do not foresee any adverse publicity as a result of Mr. Russell's visit but felt that it should be made a matter of record.
