MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director for Plans
SUBJECT: Arrest of CIA Agents by Cuban Security Police

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. On 1 March 1955, a Reuters news dispatch from Havana reported that Major Rolando GUMIL and Major Leon GUMIL were arrested on that date by the Cuban Security Police for alleged subversive activities involving the United States Central Intelligence Agency.

3. Rolando GUMIL Escades and Leon Tejada GUMIL Diaz, whose biographic sketches are contained in Attachments A and B, respectively, were, in fact, involved with this Agency in counter-revolutionary activities. GUMIL, who was recruited by a CIA agent in August 1952 inside Cuba as a principal agent to recruit high level military leaders, had no contact with CIA staff personnel. He was, however, the S/S material and trained by his recruiter under Agency direction. His S/S contact had been made with CIA staff July 1954. GUMIL, the two brothers of the above, had been in contact with this Agency during the years 1951-1952 (last contact in February 1952), during which time he had been in direct contact with at least ten staff officers, two of whom were known to him by true names. This information was obtained from a review of the Agency's operational contacts, which include S/S, with GUMIL credited in Attachment A. Attached also (Attachment C) is a list of those officers who met with GUMIL, where and when they met, and the circumstances.

4. In addition to the staff officers mentioned above, GUMIL also had contact with at least seven Cuban Army officers, including General GUMIL. GUMIL also communicated with General GUMIL, Army's representative, but it was clear to him that GUMIL was not representing the United States Government.
