Re Miami airtel to Bureau, 7-16-62.

WEEKLY AIRTEL SUMMARY

Frequent spot checks at 523 N. E. 71st Street, Miami, from July 16 to 20, 1962, during the day and at night reflected no activity.

PETER GIAMPAPA, PCI, owner of the 1961 Falcon which subject uses when he is in Miami, advised on 7-20-62, that the subject has not used this car since 7-15-62, so he presumes he is not in Miami.

JUDITH SALVAT, PCI, advised on 7-19-62, that she and her brother, DAVID SALVAT, have been operating a dry cleaning store for one week. This store is located at 4245 West Flagler Street and is named "Salvat Dry Cleaners". She said the subject was not in Miami at the present time and she believed he was in Tampa.

SALVAT stated her brother had been a card dealer in Havana, but had never worked for the subject. She said her brother does not speak English and is having a hard time earning a living for his family since coming to the United States a few months ago. She advised she would like for her brother to obtain a job in Las Vegas or some Latin American country where gambling is legal but for this you need "connections". When asked whether the subject could help her brother obtain employment, she indicated she had already requested his help but so far nothing had come of it.

MM 693-C advised on 7-11-62, that he had seen subject in Miami around 7-1-62, and at that time the subject complained about being under constant FBI surveillance. Informant said the subject was seeking advice as to what measures he could take to elude or discourage the surveillances. The informant advised the only advice subject received was to photograph every FBI agent he saw following him, the thought being that such action on the part of the subject would discourage the surveilling agents.

MM 609-C advised on 7-12-62, he had heard that several months ago TONY RANDAZZO was fronting for the subject in the Miami area in an attempt to get an interest in a numbers and/or bookie operation. This source said he has heard nothing to indicate that the subject has acquired any bookie or numbers activity in Miami.

NEIL J. WINTERING, 2900 N. E. 33rd Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, on 7-17-62, advised that he was acquainted with the subject, having met him in Havana five or six years ago. WINTERING admitted being involved in bookie operations in the Miami area in the past but said he is not doing anything at the present time. He advised that he has met with the subject on at least three occasions during the past few months but said the reason for these meetings was of a personal nature and would be of no interest to the FBI.

WINTERING further advised that he does not believe the subject is involved in any bookie operations in the Miami area but said he knows nothing about bolita or numbers and therefore could not say whether the subject was connected in any way with these operations.

Re referenced airtel, it is requested that the name MARTIN FOX not be reported at this time. SANTIAGO REY, PCI, is attempting to become better acquainted with FOX in order to learn more about the subject.
