On 11/17/62, DL-172-C (DL 137-1216), advised he had been told on 11/16/62 by EDDIE TOM GREEN (DL 92-360) that MEADOWS and BILLY RAY GRIMES had ceased their bookmaking operation in Dallas over 30 days ago because they had been "hit" heavy on some horse race bets. GREEN told the informant MEADOWS and GRIMES were now operating a crooked dice game at a house in Arlington, Texas, along with an unknown man from Corpus Christi, Texas. Informant was of the opinion this house was identical with the one owned by JOHN BENTON TURNS, known Dallas gambler and associate of MEADOWS. (Previous investigation by the Dallas Office had located this residence at 1910 Copeland Road, Arlington, where it is known that JANICE CHRISTAKIS and BILLY RAY GRIMES are operating through the use of a Dallas exchange telephone).

On 11/13/62, Det. MORRIS BRUMLEY, Intelligence Section, Dallas PD, advised that the PD Intelligence Squad was instituting an intensive investigation of MEADOWS and his activities and through the use of a fisur would attempt to ascertain MEADOWS' place of operation in the Dallas area. Information previously developed by the Dallas Office concerning MEADOWS, his associates, his automobiles, activities and possible contacts was furnished to Det. BRUMLEY to assist him in the PD investigation. On 11/16/62, Det. BRUMLEY stated that MEADOWS is very surveillance conscious and to date efforts to successfully follow him had been conducted without result but would continue.

Re: SHERMAN FRANKLIN LITTLE, aka.
AR (DL 162-129)

On 11/15/62, Bureau Agents placed LITTLE under surveillance starting at his residence in Irving, Texas, at 7:52 am. Shortly after 8 AM, LITTLE left his residence, drove directly to the downtown area of Dallas where he parked and then went to a newsstand at 1610 Commerce St. operated by HARRY REMER URBAN, SR. (DL 162-143). LITTLE was observed in contact with URBAN for about 8 minutes. He then drove to the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, and after eating breakfast went directly to his house trailer parked at 5500 South Beckley. He was in the trailer for about ten minutes and after making stops at two drugstores and the Oak Cliff Bank and Trust Company, drove to 321 - 8th Street where he entered Apartment 101 in the Natchez Apartments. A check of the mail box indicated this apartment is occupied by MARVIN COX. (Previous investigation by Dallas had ascertained COX is a used car salesman from Grand Prairie, Tex. who, according to an informant, was associated with LITTLE in bookmaking activities.
