WEINER: It's all because of PAT. I asked him not to go nowhere, but he had to make his move. And he said I already went to HARRY BUSCH. I told him we don't need a lawyer, we're early by two months, let's see who is going to be the Speaker of the House. Now FINLEY is sending feelers out.

MARCY: He's in the Senate.

WEINER: Yeah, I know, but he sent feelers out.

MARCY: Well, he said he had it under control, but he showed me the newspaper article in Springfield. It says about a guy named MORRIS BROWN he was asked for money to come in on this bill. Next time I sit with PETE I'll get him to hold the article. I'll call him now. And a G guy, a FBI guy came in to see PETE.

WEINER: The FBI, what do they have to do with it?

MARCY: That's what PETE wonders, they heard that money is being passed.

WEINER: So what do they have to do with that?

MARCY: They wanted to check out the source.

WEINER: Oh, those (obs)! They're always stickin' their nose in.

MARCY on phone: PETE? Hi, pal, PAT. Listen on that thing that you made me read today. Can you hold that, I want to show that to somebody. Mail it to me. I'll get it back to you. Now, I'm covering that other base we talked about. Yeah.

MARCY: You got to let POLLACK know that he made some moves to knock us. OK. Now cover that base and you're home free.

WEINER: I'll cover it the minute I walk out of this office. Right now. Before, we had a meeting, eight, ten bondsmen and I said we're early, stand pat. And they all hollered. I had a fight with PAT. I went up to HARRY BUSCH's office. I said PAT, we're early and he said I already

In order to implement this Judicial Amendment a bill has been introduced in the Illinois General Assembly. It is believed that the legislation discussed above by WEINER and MARCY concerns this bill. It appears obvious that Illinois Representative PETER GRANATA has previously been approached by MARCY at the request of WEINER to block passage of this legislation. It would also appear obvious that he has been promised $25,000 for his efforts in this regard. From the above conversation it would also appear that as recently possibly as last week GRANATA was interviewed by the FBI in Springfield concerning his position in reference to this legislation. It is believed that the MORRIS BROWN, mentioned hereinabove, is a CI of the Springfield Office. Chicago is not aware of the precise information leading to the approach by the Springfield Office or the results of this interview, and Springfield is requested to furnish this information.

It is noted that ~~HARRY BUSCH~~ is HARRY J. BUSCH, a Chicago attorney with offices at 134 North LaSalle. The CHICAGO, ILL. reference to POLLACK is obviously a reference to Illinois Assemblyman WILLIAM E. POLLACK of the Ninth District who is former minority leader of the Illinois House of Representatives. The reference to FLECK is apparently a reference to Chicago Republican Ward Committeeman CHARLES J. FLECK of the 45th Ward of Chicago. Insofar as is known he has no position in the Illinois Legislature. However, it is noted that FLECK, POLLACK and BUSCH all have offices at 134 North LaSalle, Chicago. The identity of SEYMOUR RADI or RABY is unknown, and Springfield is requested to advise in the event this information is available.

PAT CERONE is a Chicago bail bondsman who is a nephew of Chicago top hoodlum JACKIE CERONE. The reference to PAT CERONE's uncle is obviously a reference to JACKIE CERONE.

The reference to FINLEY is a reference to MORGAN N. FINLEY, representing the Ninth District of Illinois in the Illinois Legislature. ILL

The reference to PHILLY is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO, it being noted that WEINER is allegedly a front for ALDERISIO in the bonding business. The reference to JOHN COGHLAN is to the Chicago attorney of that name who also has offices at 134 North LaSalle in Chicago. ILL
