Subject: Conversation With Kevin Mathis

David: I spoke with Kevin Mathis a few minutes ago. He said: * He had not heard from Senator Specter yet on our extension. * He has been talking to Rich Hertling about us and is "putting together a big package" (he was in a rush and I'm not sure what that means, I thought it meant a "package" for Specter). * In response to my question about timing, he said that he would call me back by the end of the week. I told Mathis that the House Government Reform staff was drafting a bill. He asked who would introduce the bill. I told him that probably Burton/Waxman, as the Chair and ranking member of the Committee. However, I also highlighted for Kevin that we expected positive results in the House Appropriations Subcommittee, including the possibility of all of the necessary authorization language being included in the bill. We'll have to see at the end of the week if Mathis actually calls or needs some prompting.
