Subject: RE: POSNER "REVISITED": JUST IN TIME FOR THE 35TH ANNIVERSARY--I T'S ALL OVER NOW :-(
I nanks for the advance warning. As you know, vincent bugliosi was the prosecutor of Lee Oswald(posthumously) on an HBO special trial reenactment against defenseattorney, Jerry Spence (sp). I believe the year was 1988 (25thanniversary). Spence did a fair job despite the fact he wasn't realknowledgeable about the JFK case. Bugliosi did a great job through hiswitnesses of establishing Oswald's guilt UNTIL Spence cross-examinedthem and Bugliosi's strong logic during his direct examination crumbled.
The American public was allowed to call in with their verdictand the overwhelming response rejected the "lone nut scenario"--whengiven the other side. I am hopeful the media blitz on Bugliosi's new book will bringthe JFK assassination back on page one compared to the way it is now.And while Bugliosi's marketing ad boasts that he has "irresistible logicand absolute command of the evidence", we can ask "which evidence"??The Warren Commission's version or the version hidden from public viewfor 35 years. Lee Rankin's son donation of his father's notes anddocuments to the Review Board (July 1997) illustrates how Gerald Fordmanipulated the final report, regardless of the evidence. The tapesfrom LBJ Library and other releases indicate that President Johnson,Richard Russell, John Cooper, Hale Boggs, and John McCloy didn't buy the"single bullet theory." I don't see Bugliosi in the same manner as Posner. In 1993, following the success of the movie "JFK" and the Assassination RecordsReview Act, there was public interest in the case was growing. Posner'smedia circus came to drown out the interest. In 1998, the interest isdwindling despite startling revelations coming out of the Review Board.Bugliosi's media blitz can only ignite interest and debate--we need tohave our best and brightest ready to respond to his "evidence."Chuck Marler> -----> From: Vincent M. and Jessica K.>
