Subject: Bundy Diary Matter

Jeremy:When at the JFKL, I inquired about the Bundy diary that Manchester makes reference to in his book. As you will recall, Max Holland had flagged this. In addition, Max says there is reference to an "untitled memo of events - November 22-25," written by Bundy on December 4, 1963. Megan Desnoyers said that they did not have the Bundy diary, nor did she think that it was in the Manchester materials. (Desnoyers thinks that if such a diary exists, it is still with the family, with whom they have been working, with no success.) She did mention that there was box or file list that the Library had prepared on the Manchester materials and that it was shared with the Board staff. Do you have a copy of it? If so, could Jerrie fax it to me? If too long, perhaps she could FedEx it to me. Please advise. Thanks. Tom
