Subject: Curt Silvers

recommends including any exhibits in your written testimony and then asking members to turn to page xx to see an example. He says they do not have the capability to project documents in any way and he has never seen it done. They can arrange for an easel if you want one. Curt would like to have your final written testimony by early tomorrow. He said staffers will start bugging him for it by late today but that he can easily put them off until Tuesday morning. After 12:00 on Tuesday, he said the staffers will get mean. He needs 50 copies of your written testimony for distribution. We should start making copies of any documents you have definitely chosen by this afternoon. That way we can put your testimony on top and have 50 complete

Body: packages ready by early tomorrow.
