I spoke to Mike Collins and told him we would be submitting a proposed agreement, as well as a list of the records we want copied, shortly but that the Review Board had to sign off. I gave him an advance listing of the record categories we would want copied, as well as our argument on the McKenzie papers relating to Marina and Robert Oswald. Mr. Collins again mentioned that his Museum Board will be meeting next Wednesday, and he said that it would be helpful to receive our letter by then. Therefore, it would be beneficial if we finalized our letter proposal to Collins by the end of the week if possible. Will the Review Board be considering our proposed letter this week? --Ron
