Subject: Conversation With Richard Barnes, Former AP Reporter Regarding Wire Copy

I spoke with Richard Barnes, (202) 895-1513, today regarding the A.P. wire copy that he saved from the day of the assassination and the days immediately after. As you know, he has the original but left a complete copy with us. He has now agreed to let us put the copy into the JFK Collection. The timing of the announcement is up to us. I told Barnes we would share a draft news release with him, prior to distribution so he can see how he is referenced. You had mentioned that you wanted to wait a while before doing a news release. Perhaps in about a month it would be "ripe." I told Barnes I would talk to him at the beginning of May.
