Subject: Update on Contacts With House and Senate Appropriations

(1) I spoke with Tammy Perrin, Senate Appropriations Subcommittee, today regarding: (1) the White House budget amendment for us going up to the Hill (Eileen is faxing her a copy) and (2) the Zapruder film public meeting. She appreciated the heads up on both (noting that they have other agencies that are "remiss" about advising the Committee on such matters as the Zapruder film situation that we face). I told her that I did not know what the Board was going to do on the Zapruder film tomorrow, but we wanted to have contact with them before the meeting because there may be media coverage and we were not confident that it would accurately reflect the Board's decision and the role included for the Congress. We agreed that we would talk after the public meeting tomorrow. (2) I also spoke with Jennifer of the House Appropriations Subcommittee and advised her that the White House budget amendment had gone to the Hill today. In addition, I discussed the Zapruder film meeting and told her that there may be media coverage that they will see, but I hoped that they will wait to hear directly from us regarding the specifics of the Board's action and the role of the Congress. Dettelbach and Hertling have also been advised of the situation on both of the above.
