Subject: Miami

David:If we are going to do something in Miami with Jack, it will obviously require some advance planning. A few thoughts:First, do you want me to try and pin Jack down on dates and how long he would be available?Second, I think our options are, depending on how long Jack can go for, either a press conference (if Jack has to be in and out) or a mini-daylong-media tour during which Jack visited the TV stations, radio stations, and the newspaper (if he had a whole day). Eileen is compiling a list of the various media outlets in Miami.Third, in advance of Jack's trip, it would be helpful if we had something to tout as a news hook that complimented our call for records to the public.Fourth, conceivably, our news hook could be something that comes out of the current trip that Jeremy and Dave are on. As you know, I still think that Vecianna and Salvat should be interviewed. Our hook could come out of something that they generate. For example, Salvat may possess DRE records that are not in the collection at the University of Miami. In addition, we have been told by Fonzi that Alpha 66 still exists and may be the source of records.These are some preliminary thoughts. Please let me know if you think it is okay to ask Jack about timing and his availability.Tom
