Body:	In case of emergencies (or if you really miss us!) Jeremy and I are always reachable by pager. The admin staff each have the list of emergency phone and pager numbers. Our numbers are also available in Where in the World. If it is a true emergency and you need us to respond right away, please put 911 at the end of your number. If you are calling from the office to a pager please put your extension number at the end of the numeric message.
