Subject: More re Federal register notice filing

Same re previous message. Also, per the FR editor there are a few minor technical changes to the version I gave you (punctuation and cross-references). If you need the completely accurate text, print what is now on the "g" drive at "deffinal.wpd" (I made the changes he required so we'd have a true copy).

We need to establish a process for accepting, tracking, filing, and making available to the public on request in our "reading room" any comments we receive on the proposed interpretive regs. The deadline for comments to be filed is Friday, March 10.
