Subject: HSCA database

Please note Chet's comments. I think you do not need to worry about the "red pencil" comment because we have, unbeknownst to Chet, modified our screens. It may, however, be easier to use CTL-E. To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: David Marwell/ARRB From: Chet Rhodes/ARRB Date: 02/22/95 08:10:34 PM Subject: HSCA database I have added the new listings, if you need any more please feel free to page me at 1-800-449-7076 and I can dial in and modify it further. Also you should use the key CTL-E to make edits to the documents, the red pen does not always show up on the top of peoples screens, it depends on what smarticon set they are using, but CTL-E will allways enter into an edit mode. I have also indexed the database, use the VIEW and SHOW SEARCH BAR option to allow for easy text searching. Good luck
