Subject: FYI

In the Post earlier this week, it was reported that John Podesta is leaving the Clinton Administration soon (by July). He'll be a public policy professor in the school of law at Georgetown intially. My sources tell me that his assistant, Todd Stern (I think that's his last name), will replace him. Todd used to work on Senator Leahy's Judiciary subcommittee that had FOIA jurisidiction, although he wasn't the counsel directly involved in information issues. Thought you might like to know.
