Subject: help!

Body: Can you please set up Christina's computer to work like the rest of the AA's? They are becoming increasingly frustrated that they can't get their work done while they are out there. Apparently there are printing and attaching problems (see Val). I asked David if we could nab you from your other priorities to get this done and he said ok and that he would also mention it to you.By the way, I just realized this note sounded kinda abrupt-- I don't mean to be, I'm just in a rush! Thanks as always for your help!
