Subject:	federal directories, manuals
Body:	Some weeks ago, at an A&R-wide meeting, there was discussion of obtaining for the office an up-to-date U.S. Government Manual, and/or a government-standard reference work that set out correct forms of address, etc. for various government positions. I have an immediate need for such reference sources, and don't find them listed in the ARRB Library database (although I may not be looking right). Do we have them? If so, where are they? If not, can we go ahead and get them?
