Subject: More on the letter

Thank you for your encouragement, but even after another go I can only come up with some more minorsuggestions.1) Now that the letter is to the Chairman, not Buhler, your two closing lines may be a little too imperative (ie. Soon!). Nor do we really expect that Chairman Thomas will personally pick up the phone if he has any questions. Thus, I would suggest dropping "soon" from the first line, and adding "have your staff" between 'to' and 'contact' in the second.2) In the cc's, if it is programmatically possible, Vic Fazio should be entered as "The Honorable Vic Fazio".
