Subject: Another possible glitch

Yesterday I completed my review of a document (104-10015-10168) and sent it on for Board review. On my table it registered "Status 4: Ready for Board Review ARRB Board," but it didn't appear on the ARRB's own table of documents ready for review (had I not checked for something else, I wouldn't have noticed). Finally today, when the document still had not appeared on the ARRB listing, I sent it again for Board review, and this time it transferred to the ARRB listing. But I wonder if other documents are out there in some limbo, where I think I've sent them on to the Board, but the Board has no record of them. No?
