Subject: Sullivan papers
Regarding your memo of this date: 1) It's a little too categorical to say that Sullivan's autobiography says nothing about the JFK assassination, although as I recall it says practically nothing of real use to our efforts. I wrote a memo summarizing Sullivan's autobiography, which should be retrievable from our files. 2) I, for one, haven't read the transcripts of Sullivan's 1975 House subcommittee testimony, but I'd like to.
