Subject: FOIA regulations

I put the FOIA regulation in your in box and I tabbed the relevant portions. As printed, the regulation is still a proposed rule. The final rule will be printed tomorrow, August 31, 1995. It will take effect 30 days after the date of publication. However, the language regarding documents to be included in the public reading room did not change at all from the proposed rule to the final rule. When I drafted the regulation, I told Jeremy that I thought that we should include unclassified filings with the White House in the reading room -- primarily because the Review Board's final decisions are reviewed by the President, rather than by the judicial system.
