Subject: Treasury Records at Archives II

Steve got back to me yesterday (Tuesday). Guess what? Archives does have the central files from the Office of the Secretary of Treasury (1957-64, I think). He also found files from the Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement from the same period(sounds like the same office files we found at Main Treasury from the 1970s). There are 129 boxes and he had not yet opened them when he called me. He will go through them today and get back to me. There is probably another E-mail from me in your box right now giving an update on this topic (I love cyberspace). See ya.
