Subject: Frederick H. John, aka Fred J. Benjo

I wanted you to see this. I replied to David and Tom that this would be an ideal search for you to conduct at FINCEN if they decide to pursue it. To: David Marwell/ARRBcc: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB, Anne Buttimer/ARRB From: Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date: 11/30/95 12:52:37 PM Subject: Frederick H. John, aka Fred J. Benjo As I mentioned, the name of Frederick H. John, shows up in some of the records which Richard Case Nagell kept and in connection with the alleged tape recording of Oswald which Nagell claimed he possessed. Nagell appeared to have written to John during the Garrison investigation, addressing the correspondence to: Fred J. Benjo at 817 Catalina Street, Los Angeles, California 90005. Attorney William Martin stated in a September 1967 letter that he visited Frederick H. John at 474 Crane Street (in central LA), telephone number 225-7031. Bob Nagell thinks that John/Benjo is deceased. Dick Russell wrote in his book that Martin told Nagell that he found John, but John said the tape was stolen in 1964. According to Russell, Nagell later wrote to his sister stating that the tape was not stolen in 1964. Russell added that Nagell told him in the late 1970's the tape remained in safekeeping. Russell said that he was never able to find Frederick H. John. ("The Man Who Knew Too Much," p.434-425.) I can provide Dave with what I have on this matter if you want to pursue it any further.
