Subject: Dallas Interviews-Update

Doctor Robert Grossman update--we have his address and phone #, but he lives in Houston, not Dallas, so I did not call him since you are only going to Dallas on this trip. Nurse Audrey Bell update--we have her name and address, but I did not call her, since she lives in Vernon, Texas, which is a considerable distance (several hours' worth of driving time) to the northwest of Dallas, near the Oklahoma border and well west of Wichita Falls, Texas. Dr. William Kemp Clark (the attending Neurosurgeon at Parkland who pronounced President Kennedy as deceased on November 22, 1963): He is now retired. Home address is: 3909 Euclid Dallas, Texas (214) 528-5985 I successfully reached him at home about 10:15 A.M. Tuesday, Dec 05, 1995. After identifying myself, explaining in very simple and broad terms what the Review Board is, that our function is to gather records related to the Kennedy assassination, and that my call was for the purpose of trying to set up an appointment for you to meet with him for one or two hours on either Sunday, Dec 17, or Monday, Dec 18 his short but polite reply was, "Have Mr. Gunn call me." I thanked him and told him that you would be unable to call him until the week of Dec 11, since you were out of town this week. At that point he simply repeated his request, "Have him call me." I thanked him for his time, and this terminated our phone conversation. END
