Subject: 1967 IG report

I reviewed a classified version of the IG report this morning. In 133 pages, there are only three paragraphs that have substantive text redacted. The remainder of the redactions are only names of Agency employees. I believe that the whole report could be reviewed and prepared for the board in a matter of a couple of hours. Barry had some concern as to whether the report should be on the agenda for the February meeting; I assume he'll be calling you about these in the near future. If you would like elaboration, please see me at your convenience.
