Subject: Church Comm. doc.: "...Number and Extent of Committee Interviews"

Attached to the hardcopy of this E-mail is SSCIA record 157-10002-10313, which contains a typed cover sheet - itself instructive as to the scope of the Committee's work -- and an approximately 30-page handwritten index to Committee meetings and interviews conducted at such meetings. A cursory review suggests that at least some of these interviews/transcripts are not in the current Church Committee collection. At the same time, perhaps not all of them should be/need to be in the collection. In the end, I may have to do a somewhat painstaking cross-referencing to try and get a precise (or precise as possible for now, given the limitations of the existing NARA finding aid and the fact that we don't have disks) read on the universe of interviews/deposition on this list and not yet in the collection; in the meantime, or even in lieu of undertaking the task, you may wish to go down the list quickly and annotate items you think ought to be requested of Jim Wolfe. Having completed my survey of the 40 Church Committee boxes at NARA II, I should warn you more generally that the scope of my memo to Wolfe has expanded as a result and that finishing it will take a little while. I'm tempted to hold off even trying to finish it until we get the disks -- if I had an electronic database I could search on, I could ensure that we won't be asking for things that are already in the collection, but which aren't specifically referenced in the NARA finding aid or noted in my visual survey of the last week -- but, since there's no guarantee we'll get the disks soon, I presume I should proceed.
