Subject: Dr. Karnei

I called back and left a written phone message for Dr. Karnei, asking that he shoot for a window during the first two weeks in May. I did this because he cannot come next week, and you will be absent until April 29. I am sure you will want to be present for this important interview--and the first two weeks in May will still be prior to our next major event.To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: Tim Wray/ARRB, David Marwell/ARRB From: Douglas Horne/ARRB Date: 04/01/96 02:06:20 PMSubject: Dr. Karnei just spoke to Dr. Karnei by phone. He also has received our letter.He lives in Wytheville, VA. (pronounced "With-ville"); it is far away in southwest Virginia, he says, at the intersection of routes 88 and 71, between Roanoke and Bristol.Per your direction, because of the great distance involved, I asked him if he would be willing to come to our offices and talk to us, if we paid for his Hotel, etc. the night before. He seemed amenable, saying, "it can't be next week, because I'll be on vacation; let me talk to the person who will take over my duties for me, and I'll get back to you on when we can do this."Jeremy, I have given both Dr. Karnei (and Stringer) your name as a back-up, in case they call and I am not here. (I gave them your name since Tim is out this week.) Stringer wanted a name just in case something comes up and he can't be at home Monday for our call.I will inform alcon when Dr. Karnei calls me back with a proposed date to come to DC.
