Subject: FYI only: Roland Lee Augustinovich transcript in HSCA Numbered Files

The RIF attached to the hardcopy of this memo reflects a 346-page transcript of an HSCA interview with the above-named individual. The HSCA sent two staffers to Chicago (to pick up the contact who was putting them in touch with Augustinovich) and then to Arizona to interview the guy for two days. As you no doubt recall, Augustinovich claimed to be ex-CIA, involved with training of Cuban exiles in the Everglades, who met Oswald there in 1960 (when LHO was supposedly in Russia). He weaves, rather inarticulately and at great length, a confused double-Oswald theory. The entire transcript is referred to the CIA and thus not present at all in the public boxes at NARA II. It occurred to me that, given its size and subject matter, this could be a document you would want to "clear" separately/in advance of the bulk of the CIA-referred documents in the HSCA collection. I've also attached a Garrison-era memo on Augustinovich, FYI. No need to reply unless/until you want me to do
