Subject: Laptop use
Ok, David was right.... we will be using the laptop for the current FBI disk transfer. The hard disk of the computer we sent is just to small and the process much too awkward. We will regroup while letting Kevin take the laptop over and harvest away. (take a book... a long book...)Kevin the machine is on my desk ready to go.David: Should we purchase a portable harddrive? or as you suggested before a extra floppy drive for the laptop.Val: Kevin may need access to my office, let him in please thanks.
