Subject: fbi data/upcoming fbi release
I called Pat to ask whether the data we recently collected covered the documents in the FBI's upcoming release. She could not guarantee that we got all of the updated data without knowing exactly what was to be released, but she thought that we got almost all of it. She asked again about the possibility of getting a faster computer, because it now takes five minutes to copy a disc onto the old 286 that we brought over. She also asked whether we could load the harvest program onto one of her 386 machines, if we could not bring over a faster computer.
