I spoke with Ralph Pugh of the CHS. He said that the inventory of the records of the Chicago P.D. "Red Squad" is not yet completed, but will be within the next couple of months. The materials given to them by the court were dealing solely with people's leftist political beliefs. So, there isn't anything on any organized crime figures or, for that matter Thomas Vallee. He said we have to go through the Alliance to End Repression (who were the lawyers for the plaintiffs) to get unlimited access to the records. I told him I would call again to see if the inventory was ready.
