Subject: Zapruder

Henry Zapruder called me this morning to correct what he thought might have been a misunderstanding at the meeting yesterday. He emphasized that any mention of Christies was in connection with the value of the film and not with any intention to market it. I asked him about the October "deadline," and he indicated that Jamie was being "highly theoretical" and cautious. He mentioned that, among other things, there was a trespass statute that Jamie was concerned about and that there was a general concern about the dating of whatever taking might have occurred.
