Subject: Robinson Interview

Tim, Jeremy asked me who was going to conduct the interview with Robinson. I told him that you and I would discuss it first thing Friday morning. I am prepared to "take the point," if you do not want to, but I would feel more comfortable if someone else (Jeremy or you) kicks it off by discussing our legislation, mandate, etc. Jeremy also told me that a decision has now been made NOT to tape this interview; therefore, he pointed out, good notes have to be taken so that a thorough interview summary can be written. (I hereby volunteer to do that.) We may very well do "something else" with Mr. Robinson later (i.e., an affidavit or a deposition), but Jeremy is adamant we will not tape this one. Noelle, this means you can disregard my request to set up tapes.
