Subject: MONGOOSE documents

Here is what I foresee for these documents this week: Monday-- I cannot go to NARA because Bruce Hitchcock is coming at 11:00, and Manuel can't go because there are CIA docs to review. I don't expect that anyone will be going today. Tuesday-- I will plan on being at NARA all day. Kevin had mentioned an interest in going up with me, so maybe that would be a good time to do so. Manuel should still be busy with docs, but if Tim has some time, he may wish to join us. Wednesday-- I will be leaving for the weekend at around 1:00, so I do not plan on going up. Anyone else can go up as they see fit. I think it would be best that people going up for the first time be accompanied by someone who has been up there before. Not that they're all that complicated, I just think it is good procedure to have people who've seen them to be up there. I gave each of you a copy of the review table; if you do go up there, please just fill in the folders you have reviewed, and I'll add them to the master table on Monday.
