Subject: Reibe and Stringer
 TO: Jeremy_Gunn @ jfk-arb.gov (Jeremy Gunn) @ internetcc. (cc: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB)FROM: 72303.2702 @ CompuServe.COM (David Lifton) @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date: 07/08/96 04:46:18 PM CDTSubject: Reibe and StringerJeremy:Just got into my office and got your two emails. I will devote some time this evening to locating what I have on both items, and will report back tomorrow.From memory, here's what I have:STRINGER:1. Tapes (and transcripts) of my two 1972 interviews (which were a day or so apart)2. Transcripts of reporter Craig Colgan's recent interviews (where he visited with Stringer and played him the tapes mentioned in "1" [which, at Colgan's request, I sent to him---this is circa 1993, I think]---and where Stringer basically disclaimed what he had said previously. Colgan reported all this in the story which I believe I already sent.3. Assorted memos where I explain what happened, and how Stringer changed his story, from the time he was recontacted by KRON-TV in fall of 1988 (at which time he again repeated same statements about hole in back of head) and then the huge letdown when they incurred the expense of sending a journalist and TV crew all the way from San Francisco to Florida, only to have him change his story.FYI Re STRINGER: When I flew to San Francisco and appeared at KRON-TV for my "interview" (as you know, it was basically a "best evidence" program, and I was both a consultant and an interviewee), I asked producer Stanhope Gould to see that Betacam reel. He said OK, and I viewed it in its entirety. My impression was that Stringer was lying---this is subjective, and has everything to do with the way his face was "tight" and just his general demeanor. Of course, I am (understandably) influenced by my own two interviews with him from 1972. In view of Stringer's importance, and the way he changed his story (an event which occurred in Oct. 1988) I think you should ask KRON-TV to make you a copy of this 1988 Stringer interview. (And while ARRB is at it, I think the other KRON-TV medical interviews, all circa fall 1988, should be acquired, if they would have the good heart to make them available).So basically, there are these Stringer "events":8/72--me interviewing Stringer 10/88--KRON telephone interview of Stringer (untaped) followed by filmed interview, in which he changes story 1993 or 94: Colgan interview of Stringer, at his home, in which he plays tape of my 8/72 interview, and in which Stringer attempts to disclaim previous statementsRe REIBE, I have: 1. Tape and transcript of my original Reibe telephone interview (circa 1979); and which was the basis for any quotes in Best Evidence 2. Transcript of (as well as video tape of) 1-2 hr. video interview, in Tulsa, of Reibe, circa June/July 1989; where we went over his whole story, and in detail 3. Be aware that the following also exists: October 1988 video interview of Reibe done by KRON-TV (who asked that it be done by a free-lance (or "stringer")---whose name was Friedman (I think). Re address and phone for Reibe: see separate email.As stated, I will work on the rest of your requests tonight,
