Subject: pagers

I have ordered three pagers (two local, one nationwide). They should be here by Friday. As discussed, I will keep one at all times, David will keep the nationwide at all times, and the other local will be rotated among duty officers after hours and available during office hours for people attending mtgs if necessary. The two local pagers will have DC numbers. The local zone goes north to the Balt/PA line, south to Fredericksburg, VA and east to the Bay Bridge (don't know about west). They vibrate and beep and run on AAA batteries. Chet, were we ever successful in the dial-out of the alarm system? I'll let you know when they get here.
