Subject: INCA & BriLab
I called Ed Butler, head of INCA in New Orleans, again today. No one answered the telephone and I left another message. I also called Marshall Jarrett, the Chief of the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's office for the D.D.C. (514-6988), to talk to him about BriLab, but he was also not in his office. I will try again tomorrow.
