Subject: New Arlington Cemetery Records
Joan Hamilton (Army records manager) called me this morning to say that she has learned of some records at Arlington Cemetery related to JFK gravesite, including blueprints, etc. Some may be duplicates of planning documents we previously recovered from the Army Corps of Engineers, but there may be some new stuff as well. She gave me a point of contact at Arlington who is knowledgeable about their records, so I plan to ask Brian to contact him to followup. FYI.
