Subject: Supplies

Hi Tracy, I hope you are feeling better. We are kind of low on yellow pads in the supply room. I was also wondering if it was possible to get small post its about 1 X 1, and also labels for addresses that are smaller than the shipping label but bigger than the file label. Just so they're big enough to hold four lines of text. The shipping label really seems too big. I didn't see any other sizes in the supply cabinet. Also, regarding my mouse tray in the desk - the fix from Chet was very temporary, so I need another peg still to hold it in place. One of the new persons, (I can't remember her name) asked me for a bulletin board. I looked in the supply room and found none. So I told her to see you to have it ordered since we probably didn't have any extras floating around. Just to let you know. Thanks for all your help. Take care.
