Melvin Mouron Belli, Esq. was born on 07/29/1907 in Sonora, California & died in July of 1996. One source indicates an autopsy was performed showing he died from pancreatic cancer & that his blood contained morphine (an opiate used to alleviate the intense pain typically caused by such cancers). Belli was known as "one of America's most flamboyant lawyers" & had the following people as part of his clientele: Mae West, Muhammad Ali, Jim & Tammi Faye Bakker, Zsa Zsa Gabor & Jack Ruby. The last known address for Belli is: 574 Pacific AvenueSan Francisco, CA 94133415-981-1849Belli completed his undergraduate & law degrees at the University of California at Berkeley. He held California State Bar Association number 13929 & was admitted on 11/15/1933. Belli was suspended for 30 days effective 04/30/1974 (for reasons not included) & the last firm name (for Belli) found within the Bar Association's records is: Belli, Belli & Brown900 Montgomery StreetSan Francisco, CA 94133The following address is also associated with Belli:30 Hotaling PlaceSan Francisco, CA 94111 A source indicates Belli would normally not charge for his representation unless a ruling was made in his client's favor; at which point he'd collect 1/3 of the judgment. A report shows that when Belli died, he had won an uncollected $1.2 billion judgment against the estate of Ferdinand Marcos, the late president of the Philippines. Belli also had a still undetermined portion of a $5 billion judgment against Exxon re: the Valdez oil spill. He was also carrying appx 365 breast implant cases in a lawsuit against Dow Corning. Another source indicates that Belli may have declared bankruptcy within the last year. Melvin Caesar Belli, Esq. (aka: Melvin M. Belli Sr., Melvin C. Belli II & Melvin Caesar SFS) is the son of the late Melvin Mouron Belli, Esq. Caesar completed his undergraduate degree at the University of California at Berkeley & his law degree at the University of San Francisco.
