Subject: Interviews

In reading Chris's message about Monier, I became concerned about how interviews are being set up, the terms of the interviews, the assumptions that Chris may have about what is entailed, etc.. Before any person is told that we may be taking testimony under oath, David and I need to agree and the Board needs to be informed. We do not have the authority to take interviews under oath without having first notified the Board. Please -- do not set up any personal interviews without making sure that I am fully notified in advance and that we have reached an agreement about the type of interview, where it will be, whether it will be recorded, and who will be doing it. I also did not know that you were arranging to go (solo?) to Nevada to interview Coyle. We had talked about our going together in conjunction with the Board meeting. We had not talked about any other plan. Before such plans are made, you, David, and I all need to be on the same page.
