Subject: Barry's visit of 9/20

Barry came by and we went over the list of items on your 9/16/96 memo to him, re: issues arising in records sent over in the first batch of HSCA records returned by CIA. The long and short of it is that he took the records back with him for re-review. On the one record which had no RIF, he thought it best to simply hold it for awhile and see if they couldn't figure out where it came from. On the Security Classified Testimony (E. Howard Hunt) which they had consent-released last December, he acknowledged that the horse was out of the barn on that one; at his request, I copied several pages (containing release-in-full stamp) from the December version for his records (a similar situation has already arisen in regard to some Nosenko testimony in the second batch of records the CIA sent over yesterday; it is being handled in the same manner). I also returned to him that separate pile of documents which seemed not to have been stamped or reviewed one way or another: he and I agreed that someone must simply have missed/jumped over them.
