Subject: James Doyle and Amateur Film of Oswald in New Orleans

James Doyle called the National Archives and told David Kepley that he possessed amateur film of Lee Harvey Oswald handing out leaflets and getting in a scuffle with anti-Castro Cubans in August 1963 in New Orleans. Doyle indicated that he wanted to donate the original film to the National Archives. Kepley called us to give information on Doyle to make contact with him. While talking to Kepley, I recalled that in the 1993 PBS Frontline special on the assassination that there was amateur film of Oswald on the streets in New Orleans while he was leafleting. I checked the video and there is such video and a "James Doyle" is credited at the end of the show. Doyle had told Kepley that the film had been used once before, although he did not detail when or where. I am assuming that it was in the Frontline special. Nevertheless, it is an important film to get into the collection. Please make contact with Doyle and confirm everything that he told Kepley above and ask him if, in fact, his film was used by Frontline. Following contact with Doyle, please discuss with David Marwell means of getting the film. Information: James P. Doyle, Jr. 156 Northeast 165 Portland, Oregon 97230 Home: (503) 253-7296 Work: (503) 666-6668 (C.B. Tropical) Note: Doyle is hardly ever home and is almost always reachable at the work number above, a pet store that he owns.
