Subject: Hosty
Hosty has donated a number of original documents; they include the notes he took during the Oswald interrogation, notes he took of his interview with Ruth Paine on November 23rd; notes on Oswald's "address book"; and other stuff. Do you think we should issue a release along with copies of the most interesting stuff? Are we in a position to do that this week (when it would be most appropriate) or should we wait/ I think my preference would be to go with right away, but it may be that we risk competing with our other major story on the Powers film. What do you think?
