Subject: Just when you thought it was safe...
To: Bob, Laura, Kevin, Dougcc: From: Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date: 12/06/96 01:25:36 PMSubject: Just when you thought it was safe..... to check your e-mails!! Dan Quayle has just moved into Paradise Valley, so I may yet have to leave and return to the frozen east.!Hey, I've missed you folks! Don't know what the heck I can or will be doing for the Review Board, but it's great to be able to e-mail you!As a homecoming treat: A 12th Century epigram (translated from the Irish)called "Finn's Generosity", re: Finn McCool (a sort of Irish Robin Hood who, of course, predated the English one by several centuries; Finn's band of followers was call the fianna, the root word also for the term "Fenian", as in the "Fenian Brotherhood" and the Fenian Rising of 1867)... "If the brown leaves were gold that the wood lets fall, if the white wave were silver, Finn would have given it all away."
