Subject: FBI compliance

While I was at the FBI today, Carol introduced me to Pete Iazzetta (less-than-100% confidence on the spelling), who works in the Office of Public and Congressional Affairs and will assist Carol in preparing the FBI's compliance statements. We spoke briefly about the compliance program. I told Carol and Pete that preparing the compliance statement to some extent could be a cooperative effort, particularly with regard to the FBI's responses to ARRB requests for additional information and evidence. (Carol is concerned about her ability to document responses to the earliest requests.) I suggested that Pete, Carol, Ron, and I tentatively plan to meet the first week in January to go over the status of our additional information requests, and any other statement-related issues that they have encountered. Pete and Carol agreed to this idea.
