Subject: Civil Division Compliance

Body: CALL REPORTDocument's Author: Ron Haron/ARRB Date Created: 01/10/97 The Players Description of the Call Date: 01/10/97Subject: Civil Division ComplianceSummary of the Call:Mr. Kovakas, compliance official for the Civil Division, called to review whether certain categories of records are assassination records. In our discussion, Mr. Kovakas set out the major categories of Civil Division records that he is aware of that may qualify as assassination records: (1) FOIA files relating to access to Kennedy assassination materials (I indicated that these may qualify as assassination records); (2) records relating to the Kennedy family's conveyance of Kennedy belongings to the USG; (3) records re Marina Oswald's suit for compensation for the LHO rifle; (4) file of Dave Anderson, Federal Programs Branch, re documents dealing with the Warren Commission (this last category is at NARA in the JFK collection, I believe). I asked Mr. Kovakas to assemble all these materials and we could then review them jointly to make a determination as to whether they qualify as assassination records.
